About Bridget Hogg

Bridget is a professional speaker with over 25 years speaking experience. Bridget authored 'Find a Way or Make One to Attract and Retain Talent' in 2022 and 'Find a Way or Make One to Work You Want' in 2025. Bridget helps audiences see new ways. Bridget inspires your audience through personal stories of making things happen – from finding a way to help hundreds of mature job seekers to find work they want – to walking on burning hot coals. It's not about "mind over matter" – this is about sharing personal experience of finding and making a way so your audience sees how they can "make one" too.

Bridget's background is in organisation development, positive psychology, project management and outplacement. She has spoken at conferences in Australia, the UK and France including:
